Taste of Hong Kong

Cookery Tours

7 days from: £1335

Being one of the three Capital Millennium Projects of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the Chinese Cuisine Training Institute is internationally renowned for its high standards in training of professional chefs. The Institute now extends this expertise to teaching culinary enthusiasts including those from overseas.

During exclusive 4-hour courses participants experience the joy of Chinese cooking in a professional and inspirational environment. You begin with an extensive tour of the kitchens of the Institute, concluding the tour in the Demonstration Kitchen where your cooking adventure begins.

To ensure you miss nothing; you will be assisted throughout lessons by trainees from the Institute and taught by experienced instructors. As guests you will also become familiar with some of the most modern and technically advanced cooking equipment available today.

The program includes the unforgettable cooking experience, a lunch prepared by the trainees of the Chinese Cuisine Training Institute, a certificate of accomplishment and a souvenir.

Daily Itinerary

Day 1 (Saturday)

Depart from Heathrow on flight LH4729 at 13.55 hours.

Day 2 (Sunday)

11.15 hours arrive in Hong Kong where you will be met and transferred to your hotel.

Evening Dinner at a famous Chinese Restaurant

Accommodation at Metropark Hotel in Kowloon for 5 nights

Day 3 (Monday)

Dim Sum Breakfast.

Morning visit to a local food market followed by a private Chinese Cooking Class (4 hours) at the Chinese Cuisine Training Institute.

Afternoon at your leisure.

Day 4 (Tuesday)

Morning private Chinese Cooking Class (4 hours) at Chinese Cuisine Training Institute.
Afternoon at your leisure.

Day 5 (Wednesday)

Full day at leisure. We'd recommend a cruise around Victoria Harbour, one of the busiest harbours in the world and enjoy the spectacular backdrop of Hong Kong Island's stunning skyline and striking coastline with the countless junks, sampans and pleasure craft gliding around the harbour.

Day 6 (Thursday)

Full day at leisure. A great opportunity to go shopping for the latest fashions at wholesale prices at Cheung Sha Wan Road Fashion Street or the flea market in Apliu Street, that is well known for selling bargain (brand new and second-hand) electrical devices and electronic products, A/V equipment and telecommunications products. Sharp-eyed shoppers can also find good deals on antique watches, old coins and other relics.
